

PREAMBLE

We, the people of Nomashae, united in balance and guided by the principles of harmony, wisdom, strength, and freedom, do hereby establish this Constitution.

Inspired by the eternal elements - Earth, Water, Fire, and Air - we commit to building a nation founded on unity, creativity, justice, and peace.

ARTICLE I - THE STATE

Section 1: Name

The official name of the nation shall be "Republic of Nomashae".

Section 2: Sovereignty

All power resides in the people of Nomashae.

Section 3: National Principles

Nomashae is founded upon:

- Balance
- Unity
- Freedom
- Respect for all elements and cultures

Section 4: Symbols

The nation shall have:

- A flag
- A coat of arms
- A national anthem
- An official language

ARTICLE II - CITIZENSHIP

Section 1: Eligibility

Citizenship may be granted by:

- Birth
- Application
- Honorary decree

Section 2: Rights of Citizens

All citizens have the right to:

- Freedom of expression
- Participation in governance
- Equal protection under the law
- Cultural and linguistic expression

Section 3: Duties of Citizens

Citizens must:

- Respect the Constitution
- Contribute to the nation
- Uphold unity and peace

ARTICLE III - GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE

Section 1: Branches of Government

Nomashae shall have three branches:

- Executive
- Legislative
- Judicial

Section 2: Executive Branch

Led by:

- President and Premier of Nomashae

Responsibilities:

- Enforce laws
- Represent the nation
- Appoint ministers

Section 3: Legislative Branch

- Creates laws
- Approves national policies
- Oversees ministries

Can be:

- Council, Assembly, or Parliament

Section 4: Judicial Branch

- Interprets laws
- Resolves disputes
- Ensures justice

ARTICLE IV - MINISTRIES

The government shall maintain essential ministries, including but not limited to:

- Internal Affairs
- Foreign Affairs
- Finance
- Justice
- Defense
- Culture
- Education

Additional ministries may be created as needed.

ARTICLE V - ELEMENTAL BALANCE SYSTEM

Section 1: The Four Elements

Nomashae recognizes:

- Earth (Stability)
- Water (Adaptability)
- Fire (Energy & Progress)
- Air (Freedom & Wisdom)

Section 2: Application

Government decisions should reflect balance among these principles.

Section 3: Elemental Council (Optional)

An advisory council may exist representing each element.

ARTICLE VI - LAW AND JUSTICE

Section 1: Rule of Law

All individuals and officials are subject to the law.

Section 2: Fair Trial

Every citizen has the right to a fair and impartial process.

Section 3: Legal Code

Laws must be documented and publicly accessible.

ARTICLE VII - ECONOMY

Section 1: Economic System

Nomashae may adopt any system suited to its development.

Section 2: Currency

The nation may establish its own currency.

ARTICLE VIII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1: Proposal

Amendments may be proposed by:

- The Executive
- The Legislature
- A percentage of citizens

Section 2: Approval

Amendments require:

- Majority approval

ARTICLE IX - NATIONAL IDENTITY

Nomashae shall preserve and promote:

- Its culture
- Its language
- Its symbols
- Its creative expression

ARTICLE X - FINAL PROVISIONS

This Constitution is the supreme law of Nomashae.

Any law conflicting with it shall be invalid.